Telegraph Tips

Geneva, April 20.—With the allies on the offensive on the western front the Germans have begun a drive in Macedonia. Dispatches received here today indicated that Germany has not yet lost hope of bringing Greece into the war on her side. The Teutonic attacks against the French, British, Italian, and Russian troops in Macedonia are believed to be for political effect as well as for military mastery.

London, April 20.—Sailors on the Norwegian steamer Star were fired upon by a German submarine while leaving the sinking ship in life-boats, says a dispatch from Copenhagen today. It adds that the Germans looted the ship. It is reported farther that the life-boats of the Norwegian steamship Blomvåg were fired on by a U-boat and that four sailors were killed and several wounded.

London, April 20.—Turkish positions in Palestine over a front of nearly seven miles have been smashed by the British, says an official dispatch from headquarters in Cairo, Egypt, today. The success was won north of Wadi Ghuzeir, in southern Palestine, where the British are fighting to open up the way for a direct drive on the defenses of Jerusalem.

Rome, April 20.—"I would be proud to draw my sword under the American flag," declared Gen. Elicott Garibaldi in offering the services of himself and his four sons as military instructors in the United States army. Gen. Garibaldi suggests that the United States send an army to the Balkans.

Petrograd, April 20.—Admiral Ketchak, commander of the Black Sea fleet, was today appointed commander-in-chief of the Russian naval forces in the Baltic.

Paris, April 20.—Ten German aeroplanes and two captive balloons were shot down by the French on April 18, the war office stated today.

Cumberland, Md., April 20.—Nathan Milgram, 311 Moore street, Philadelphia, a corporal in Company D, of the Third Pennsylvania Regiment, died in a hospital here today as a result of injuries he suffered while on his way to guard duty. He fell beneath the tracks of a train and both legs were cut off.

Altoona, Pa., April 20.—Struck by a stone thrown by some unknown person early today, A. H. Graff, a National Guardsman from Philadelphia, on duty guarding a railroad bridge near here, is in a Huntington Hospital today. Thorough search in the neighborhood failed to reveal the assailant.

Zurich, April 20.—The Tagwacht, official organ of the Social Democrats in Switzerland, was authority for the statement today that the Hungarian Socialists, at a secret convention, adopted resolutions demanding that Germany and Austria make known specific peace terms at once.

Bogota, Colombia, April 19 (via Colon), April 20.—It is expected that President Gomez will ask congress to express Colombia's attitude on the war when congress convenes tomorrow. Pro-entente forces are working hard to have Colombia support the United States in the war with Germany.

London, April 20.—Another defeat for the Turks in Mesopotamia; and the capture of 1,344 prisoners was reported by the British war office today. The British forced a passage of the F. el-Ahom, routing the Turkish force that were holding important positions here.

Mexico City, April 20.—Reports that German agents have approached members of congress were denied today by Gen. Eduardo Hay, president of the lower house. It had previously been alleged that German emissaries had tried to influence congressmen to oppose Gen. Carranza's neutrality proclamation.

Albany, N. Y., April 20.—Gov. Whitman is authorized in a bill offered today by Assemblyman Armstrong to appoint Theodore Roosevelt a major general of the National Guard and place him on the reserve list, notwithstanding any provision of the military law to the contrary.

CLOTHES THAT EXPRESS THE MAN

You want clothes that express YOU, not your age, but your spirit. Young Men's Clothes express youthful ideas, not years. Older men ought to have clothes that express vitality and vigor; even if somewhat advanced in years there is no sense in dressing old-fashioned. So far as clothes are concerned, you ought to look your best and your youngest.

Here You Will Find the Right Clothes-- Clothes That Express You

Clothes designed for men of all ages, and even more—clothes for men of all figures, regardless of how slender or how obese; how tall or how short. Men of every build need and receive special treatment in the designing of these W. & L. Special Clothes.

Many Fine and Handsome Fabrics Are Shown

Selecting the color and the pattern is one way men can express their individuality very pleasingly. We have all the fine blues, grays, greens, browns, tans and everything in fancy weaves and colors. Satisfaction in fabrics, fit, tailoring, all-wool quality is assured.

An Underwear for Men That's Different

Kneipp Linen Mesh

It is made on correct scientific and physical principles. Designed to protect your health and to provide your skin with the proper means of performing its duties.

Kneipp Linen Mesh Underwear is very absorbent; absorbs the perspiration and impurities that the pores throw out, and dries quickly, thus it does not send them back into the skin. The moisture thus given out is radiated away at once.

Kneipp Linen Mesh is made porous, allowing the skin room to breathe and be healthy—thus assisting the whole physical form to be healthy.

Kneipp Linen Mesh Underwear assists the skin in performing its natural and intended functions; the mesh gives a gentle friction which is very helpful and also allows the pores to contract and expand according to the amount of heat in your body.

Kneipp Linen Mesh is a healthful and hygienic underwear.

Shirts and Drawers, $2.50 and $3.00 each. Union Suits, $5.00 and $6.00 each. Main floor—F st.

WOMEN'S SUITS FOR IMMEDIATE AND FUTURE WEAR

With Variety of Styles Distinguishing the Entire Collection and Assuring a Pleading Selection for Everyone.

The diversity which this exhibit presents and the true comprehension of every need of women for formal and informal suits will prove a royal treat to those who admire individuality in dress and strive always to attain it.

FINE COSTUME SUITS

Two and three-piece Suits of silk, silk and satin and cloth. Exact reproductions of Parisian models are many. The gay colors of the lining silks are often a most pleasing and admirable feature. The materials, buttons, trimmings and tailoring are distinguished by unusual features.

One handsome two-piece Suit of satin charmeuse in sand shade is especially suitable for receptions, teas, calling and informal wear. The coat is beautifully embroidered in black and gold beads and the long tie belt is finished with bead tassels; the skirt is full at the waist line and tapers to semi-barrel effect.

Another handsome dressy three-piece Suit is of White French Serge and Georgette Crepe in a beautiful combination for formal and informal wear.

There is a Large Number of These Models of Refined Elegance to be Found Here.

$65.00 to $110.00.

Tailored and Sport Suits

The smart Braid-bound Suits are particularly featured; the waistcoat, belted and plaited models are most effective and show the trend of fashion with a truthness of expression that cannot be gainsaid. Many of the most attractive are combinations of velvet and serge and satin and serge. Others are of tricotine, Poirer twill, gabardine, serge, burella, gunniburl, Dunnfries' stripe, novelty effects, wool jersey and many handsome new sports silks. This is one of the most interesting showings we have ever made—the sports suits are bright, unusual and very becoming.

$25.00 to $85.00.

"DAD HUBBARD" BIRD HOUSES Here Are the Kinds of Bird Houses That Birds Like.

Birds make delightful neighbors and they will gladly live around your home if you provide the proper home for them. We have the famous "Dad Hubbard" Bird Houses, which are made according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture's specifications. They are as artistic as anything of the kind could be.

If you provide a home for birds you will find much pleasure in watching them and the children will take a keen interest in their habits and ways of living and providing for themselves and their little broods.

It is a wonderful lesson in the ways of nature to have a Bird House around your home—occupied by friendly birds.

No. 1—House for Wrens and Bluebirds, $1.50. One-inch hole in front of house for wrens, larger hole in back for bluebirds; a white circle is left around the hole so that the birds won't taste paint when they peck the wood.

No. 2—House for Bluebirds, $2.50. These houses are built to set on long poles as the bluebirds like them.

We have other Bird Houses as high as $15.00.
